Total sales of stocks were 210,240 shares, including: American Tobacco, 39,400; Atchison, 6,300; American Sugar, 25,900; Baltimore & Ohio, 16,600; Chicago Gas, 6,000; Distilling, 4,100; General Electric, 11,700; Louisville & Nashville, 10,600; Missouri Pacific, 3,200; Rock Island, 11,300; St. Paul, 9,400; Tennessee Coal and Iron, 6,400; Union Pacific, 3,500; Wabash preferred, 4,500.

Increased activity and a higher range of prices occurred in yesterday's stock market. The dealings, while to a large extent professional, were widely distributed, and a more cheerful temper was discernible in financial circles, despite further advance in the exchange market. The interest of traders as usual of late appeared to hinge more on the industrials than the railway shares, but some of the railroad stocks recorded fairly railway stocks loomed into prominence, notably Wabash preferred and Atchison preferred. Little or no stress was laid on the gold export probabilities, and the grangers were advanced on the theory of a freer anovement of the crops in the near future. Influences of a special character operated to cause advances in various shares. Sugar improved 1% on an advance in practically all grades of the refined product. General Electric made about a similar gain on renases induced by gossip regarding more satisfactory business prospects and suggestions that the working agreement with the Westinghouse interests would soon be declared operative. Pool buying was discernible in various properties. Tobacco was advanced at the cutset 1% per cent to 90%. on heavy purchases based on unfounded rumors of the closing down of a powerful competitor of the American Tobacco Company on an emphatic denial from official sources, traders raided the stock, and also on the theory that the effect of the expected dividend announcement had been discounted. Realizing orders were also apparent, and contributed towards a recession to 89%. The subsequent course of the stock was erratic within a narrow range, and the closing was practically unchange on the day. The advances in the general ilst were substantial. At the top level Manhattan, Rock Island and Leather preferred figured for 1½, Delaware & Hudson 1%, Atchison preferred 1%, Burlington, Louisville & Nashville and Wabash preferred 1%, and a number of other shares gained a point or thereabouts. Metropolitan Traction sold ex. dividend of 1% per cent, and rose to 106 against 10314 the last preceding sales, despite the veto by Mayor Strong of the extension privileges anticipated by the company. In the late dealings a general realizing movement occurred, which caused an easier tone at the close, and led to recessions of 1 per cent, in Chicago Gas and of slight fractions in the general list. Railway bonds were strong and higher on transactions of $1,252,000. The Atchison issues were the leaders in activity and strength, the fours trust receipts rose 1 per cent. seconds trust receipts 1% per cent., and adjustment fours trust receipts 2% per cent.

Government bonds were firm on moderate business. The sales were $78,000. The dealings in State issues footed up $21,000, with no special change in prices. The tollowing table, prepared by L. W. Louis, Room 13, Board of Trade, shows the LOCAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE. Month of Disappointing Trade, with No Striking Changes.

Yesterday closed the first spring month and it resulted in a very disappointing trade in nine out of ten lines of business. Wholesale grocers are about the only merchants who speak of trade as having been nearly up to their expectations. The last three days some improvement was noticeable. Fluctuations in values were few. Sugars are higher than on the first day of March and ruled steady. In dry goods all changes were half cent lower. Provisions are three-quarters of a cent higher, under the last revision, than in the early part of the month. Hides are lower, fruits higher, vegetables show little change, poultry, eggs and butter all ruled steady, eggs lower than in March last year and poultry ½c higher. In hardware and iron markets steady prices have prevailed. Hay and flour are both some higher than thirty days ago, but the advance is not material. Prices were governed more by quality than volume of sales. Wholesale confectioners and dealers in fancy goods and notions had a dull month. Leather dealers say their business compared favorably with last March, but in most lines the volume of business was far from satis-

The local grain market dragged through the entire month. Receipts were light and transactions few, and the variations in prices were of little importance, gains of one day being lost the next.

SPECULATORS EXPECTING A RISE HAD TO SELL OUT AT A LOSS.

Corn and Oats Held Practically Un changed, but a Material Break in Pork Occurred.

CHICAGO, March 31. - Speculators who bought May wheat yesterday at from 64c to 6416c on the belief that Armour would put good profit had to sell it out to-day as best they could at from 63%c down to 63c. It closed at 63@63%c, a decline of %c for the day, and a loss of 11/2 from the highest point it touched on the day before. Corn and oats were easier, without much alteration in price, Longs sold provisions freely and pork had another 25c break.

Fine spring weather had a depressing effect on wheat to-day. There was a fair trade early, after which the market became rather quiet, the range for the day being %c. The tone early was rather firm, and for a while higher prices ruled, but did not hold, a %c decline following, after which a \%@\c rally took place, the close showing 1/4@1/4c loss. The early firmness was due in a measure to the small weekly world's shipments, only 5,872,000 bu, against 6,734,000 bu for the same time a year ago, and estimated weekly requirements of 7,800,000 bu. There were also reports that the California crop had been damaged by blight. Northwestern receipts, too, were small compared with last week and had some influence. The out inspection made a good showing and aided the early strength. The signal service prediction of a cold wave for parts of the winter wheat belt also had some influence on values. At the advance there was rather free offerings and prices receded. Cables came easier, and outside markets ruled easy, and, then, the cash business was of smaller proportions than of late, due probably to the premiums. A prominent floor trader sold freely, and, in sagged down. New York reported that there me effect on wheat Corn was no more active or the trade of more interest to-day than it has been for so long. The highest price for the day for May corn was 291/2@29%c, and it sold as low as 29%c and closed at 29%@29%c, a shade under last night's prices.

There was some activity in the oats market, but the selling was largely by professionals and the buying scattered. The feeling during the early part of the day was weaker and prices drooped 1/6%c, but the close found the loss recovered and very little change from yesterday's final quotations. Provisions were again very weak, with tired longs the principal sellers and shorts about the only buyers. May pork ranged from $8.60 near the opening to $8.32½ at the close. May lard opened at 5.10c, sold at 5.12½c and closed at 5.05c. May ribs from 4.65c at the start sold down to and closed at 4.571/2c, against 4.65c at the end of the previous day's session. Texas wools-Spring medium (12 morning's report, after speaking of favorable wheatfields of central Illinois, also northern Missouri. Receipts were liberal, 448 cars for the Northwest. Weather in the winter wheat elt favorable, with rains in some parts. The Thoman report, which was made public to-day, is quite different from the Orange Judd Farmer report of yesterday, giving as it does, condition of winter wheat 80 against 85 last year and 85 first of December last, but this had little influence on the market. Bradstreet's decrease for the world of that most of the winter wheat here has been disposed of or is under contract and that there is about 7,000,000 bu of No. 1 Northern considered more valuable than spring does not leave a large supply of contract wheat, con-sidering that the accumulation of the country is in three places, Chicago, Minneapolis and Duluth. With continuance of pleasant weather, wheat will probably sell somewhat lower. Flour demand continues poor, but we do not think the decline will be lasting. Coarse grains were easy on the prospective weather, which is favorable for seeding oats, but there was a good local demand from shorts, which took all offerings of both corn by the weak and lower hog market at the yards and selling by packers, which caught some stop orders and caused a quick de-At the extreme low prices there was son buying which looked more like investme buying. The estimates are for 24,000 hogs to-morrow. Although prices look very low, it is well to bear in mind that pork is a product of the hog which largely comes from corn, and that at present provisions seem to be fatherless in the pit.

SUPREME COURT'S INSTRUCTION THE DEMOCRATS' ATTORNEYS.

Ruling in the Apportionment Case-Receiver Hawkins's Suit-Rioters' Trials.

The Supreme Court yesterday gave the Democratic State committee ten days in which to file its brief on the motion to cismiss the suit to set aside the apportionin wat act of 1885. The petition of the attorney's for the Republican State committee that the motion to dismiss be argued with the main case was denied. Hawkins & Smith, who represent the election officers of Marion. county, who were defendants in the court, yesterday filed counter affidavits the motion to dismiss. The affidavit is signed by J. W. Farler, clerk of Marion county; Harry B. Smith, auditor, and Albert A. Womack, sheriff. The affidavit states that after the decision in the Denny case the invalidity of the apportionment act of 1885 was freely discussed, it being generally accepted that the act was unconstitutional for the same reasons that the apportionments of 1893 and 1895 were declared bad. On Feb. 3, 1895, the Democratic State committee met and prepared an address, after which the Republican committee met and decided to attack the act of 1885, should the Governor refuse to call an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of enacting a fairer apportionment. The affidavit recalls the visit to the Governor and his refusal to call a session of the Legislature. The affidavit avers that the suit was brought against the Marion county officials simply for the sake of convenience, it being thought a decision could be reached soon.

The affidavit avers that the case in question is not fictitious; that the action is not the parties, and that the controversy is real. The affidavit of Sterling R. Holt, who averred no argument was made on the de-murrer, is denied as false. The affidavit also states that Hawkins & Smith are not attorneys for the Republican State committee, nor have they at any time been present at any of the meetings of the com Ferdinand Winter and A. C. Harris, attorneys for the Republican State committee, also filed an affidavit yesterday, in which it is averred that the action is not collusive. It is said that M. E. Forkner has had nothing to do with the preparation of the case. The attorneys claim that it was deemed better to bring the suit separate from the one in Hamilton county, so as to speedily settle the constitutionality of the act. The attor-neys submit that it is entirely proper for the case to be heard at an early day, so the people may have a certain law by which a Legislature may be chosen.

TRIALS OF THE RIOTERS.

Henry Miller, One of the Strikers, Emptied His Revolver. Yesterday afternoon was taken up in Police Court with the trial of Henry Miller, one of the striking molders who was in the riot on West Washington street ten days ago. He is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. Other strikers who will be tried are Thomas Long and William Barcus, conspiracy to commit murder, Joseph Heimbo, inciting a riot, and James Lee, rioting. The molders under arrest, and who will be tried as soon as the other cases are dis-posed of, are John Hartluff and S. E. Jollie, assault and battery with intent to kill, and J. B. Purdue and Joseph Blanchfield, assault with intent to kill.

The trial of Miller was not completed yesterday afternoon, and will be continued to-day. The others will be tried as soon as possible, the cases being set for every afternoon until they are disposed of.

The testimony yesterday was the same story that has been told and retold in the public print. The evidence for the State in Miller's case was to the effect that he was standing on Washington street, near California street, when the molders started home from Chandler & Taylor's shop. As the workmen approached he said to one of them: "You old s- - - ... I'll fix you," at the same time menacing him with a stone he held in his hand. To another he said: "You long-whiskered s- - - Till fix

Jollic testified that it was Miller who called him vile names and shot in his direction ten or twelve times. He said Miller emptied one revolver, and some one handed him another and he fired that until it was empty. The State did not complete its evidence yester-day, and will continue this afternoon. There are about fifty witnesses to examine in each

CONDEMNED GROUND UNPAID FOR. A Cross Complaint in the I., D. &

Railway Litigation. The old I., D. & S. railway litigation is up in a new form in the Marion Superior Court. Several years ago, when the road issued $1, 800,000 of first mortgage bonds, Benjamin Sands and R. B. F. Peirce became trustees for the bondholders. Afterward, the I., D. & W. became interested in the deal, and the trustees brought suit against these roads to foreclose the mortgage. Henry Coburn then appeared in the litigation with a cross complaint, setting up that the L., D. & S. had condemned certain ground on Louisiana street west of the Union Station and had never paid for it. He asked that his claim of $1,500 be allowed from the fund which would be realized by the foreclosure of the mortgage. The merits of Mr. Coburn's complaint are now being discussed by attorneys in Room 3. Su-perior Court. In the meantime the Union Railway Company has seized the ground in dispute and has possession of it.

RECEIVER HAWKINS'S SUITS.

One Is on a Ten-Thousand-Dollar Premier Steel Works Note. Edward Hawkins, receiver of the Indianapolis National Bank, brought two suits on notes in the United States District Court esterday. One of the suits was for the collection of a note for $10,000, with interest, alleged to be due from the Premier Steel Company. It is alleged that on Feb. 7, 1893, the company executed to C. W. DePauw two notes for $5,000 each, to run four months. The notes were indorsed to the Indianapolis National Bank, and Mr. Hawkins alleges that they have never been paid. The other suit is against Joseph S. Jenckes for the collection of a note given July 6, 1893, which was for $815, to run thirty days. The complaint alleges that the note was issued to Fletcher & Thomas and indorsed

Cursed Her as Soon as Wedded. Georgia Fowler seeks a legal separation from James Fowler, to whom she was married in June, 1895. She lived with her hus band for two months after marriage. The plaintiff says that her husband, the day followed lowing their wedding day, called her vile and indecent names. He would come home to his meals, push the dishes about in an angry and violent manner, and on one oc-casion attempted to strike the planitiff. He also accused her of unfaithfulness in the presence of other persons.

by them to the bank.

Judge McCray Releases Another. Howard Elliots a minor, convicted of the charge of petit larceny, was released yesterday by Judge McCray on his personal bond. The boy was tried several weeks ago and sentenced to the Reform School at Plainfield. On account of the quarantine regula-tions now being maintained at the school, the prisoner cannot be admitted, and the court felt it wise to turn him out. Elliott can be found at any time the court may want him returned. He Is in the Penitentiary.

Nellie Milburn, in a complaint for divorce iled in the Superior Court against John Milburn, says she was married to the de-fendant in October, 1895. On account of re-peated acts of violence on his part, she says, she was compelled to leave him Jan-uary, 1896. The defendant, she avers, is now serving a term in the penitentiary, where he was sent in 1895. The plaintiff's maiden name was Neille Starritt.

One of the Wabash Canal Suits. The trustees of the Elbert W. Shirk estate ught suit in the United States Circuit Court yesterday against the Columbia Brewing Company, of Logansport. The estate claims possession of the property of the old Wabash & Erie canal, and alleges that a portion of the property is in possession of the defendant corporation.

Threatened to Behead Her. Suit for divorce was brought yesterday by Sarah Miller against John M. Miller, the is charged with cruel treatment and ened to cut her head off. She says that in March, 1896, the defendant drew a pistol on her with murderous intent and was arrest-ed by the police authorities. The plaintiff atks for the restoration of her maider Probate Court Appointments. The following appointments were made in the Probate Court yesterday:

DEMOCRATS IN EECATUR.

They Are Flocking Fast to the Republican Party.

James Caskey, a prominent Republican of Greensburg, was in the city yesterday, and, although very busy, he paused long enough to give some excellent reports of Republican growth in his community. Mr. Caskey said: "If the Democratic party is as badly demoralized elsewhere as it is in Decatur county everything will be Republican this year. I am told that the Democrats are in bad shape everywhere. Their condition in Decatur is really sad. They are coming our way. Last Saturday we held a primary, and was surprised at the number of heretofore Democrats who sided with us. There were men of standing in the community, who did not have to be asked if by voting at the primary they agreed to support the nominees. In the primary there were at least one hundred former Democrats who came out and took an active part in the affair. I can count by the score the names of Democrats who are sick and tired of the present consequence of Democratic management. A large number of business men have come over to the right side. I do not take it that Decatur county is an exception, for I believe it is the same throughout the State. It's a trifle early to predict majorities, but we will have them.

A LOCAL CIVIC LEAGUE

Organized to Secure the Enforcement of Laws.

The Indianapolis Civic League was fornally organized yesterday. A meeting was neld at the office of Thomas H. Spann, quite a number of representative business men being present. The league proposes to aid in securing the enforcement of the laws in this city and vicinity. It is nonpolitical. Charles F. Coffin was elected president, John H. Holliday treasurer, and M. Shields secretary. Mr. Holliday was asked last evening con-cerning the intended action of the league. He said he knew nothing of the plans or
